
CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This corporate governance statement has been prepared in accordance with recommendation 54 of the Finnish Corporate Governance Code. The corporate governance statement has been prepared as a part of annual report and it is also available separately on the company's web pages www.etteplan.com. Etteplan's Board of Directors' has reviewed this corporate governance statement. Etteplan Oyj's external auditor, PricewaterhouseCoopers Oy, has checked that this statement has been issued and that the description of the main features of the internal control and risk management systems pertaining to the financial reporting process is consistent with Etteplan Oyj's financial statements.

General governance principles

Etteplan Oyj is a Finnish public limited company that in its decision-making and governance complies with the Finnish Companies Act, other legislation concerning publicly listed companies, and the Articles of Association of Etteplan Oyj.

Etteplan is a publicly listed company that abides by the regulations of NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Ltd. The Company is committed to compliance with the corporate governance code for listed Finnish companies, published by the Securities Market Association on 15 June 2010 except with reference to the Audit Committee (recommendations 24-27), because the Company does not have an Audit Committee.

Supervision and management of the Company is divided among the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, and the CEO.

GENERAL MEETING

The shareholders exercise their decision-making power at the General Meeting. The Company must hold one Annual General Meeting for shareholders annually, by the end of June. If necessary, an Extraordinary Meeting of Shareholders is held. A shareholder may exercise his/her right to speak, ask questions and vote at the General Meeting. The matters to be considered at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) are specified in section 8 of Etteplan's Articles of Association and in Chapter 5, Section 3 of the Companies Act.

Decisions by the AGM are published without delay after the meeting by a stock exchange release and on the Company's website at www.etteplan.com.

Information on General Meetings to Shareholders

The Board shall convene the Annual General Meeting or an Extraordinary General Meeting with a summons to be published on the Company's website at www.etteplan.com. The summons must list the agenda for the meeting. The Board may also decide to publish the invitation to the General Meeting in a one Finnish national newspaper, determined by the Board. The summons to a meeting and the Board's proposals for the meeting are also published as a stock exchange release.

The notice of the General Meeting includes a proposal for the agenda of the meeting. The notice of the General Meeting, documents to be submitted to the General Meeting and draft resolutions to the General Meeting will be available on the Company website at least three weeks before the General Meeting.

The Company will disclose on its website the date by which a shareholder shall notify the Board of Directors of the Company of an issue that he or she demands to be included in the agenda of the Annual General Meeting.

The minutes of the General Meeting shall be posted on the Company website within two weeks of the General Meeting. The documents related to the General Meeting shall be available on the Company website at least for three months after the General Meeting.

Organization of the General Meeting

According to Company's Articles of Association the General Meeting shall be held in the Company's domicile or in Lahti, Vantaa or in Helsinki as decided by the Board of Directors of the Company.

To be able to participate in General Meeting, a shareholder must be registered in the list of Etteplan Oyj's shareholders, maintained by Euroclear Finland Ltd. A nominee-registered shareholder who intends to take part in General Meeting is advised to request the necessary instructions regarding entry in the company's shareholder register and the issuing of proxy documents from their account holder. A notification by a holder of nominee-registered shares for temporary inclusion in the Company's shareholders' register is perceived as prior notice of participation in the General Meeting.

Shareholders must register for a General Meeting in advance, within the time prescribed in the summons. A shareholder may participate in a General Meeting personally or through a duly authorized proxy. The proxy must present a power-of-attorney form for such authorization. Upon registration for a General Meeting, the shareholder must report to the Company any powers of attorney issued. The shareholder and proxy may have an assistant present at the meeting.

Attendance of the Board of Directors, Managing Director and Auditor at the General Meeting

The Chairman of the Board of Directors and a sufficient number of members of the Board and its Committees as well as the CEO shall attend the General Meeting. In addition, the Auditor shall be present at the Annual General Meeting.

Attendance of a prospective Director at a General Meeting

A person proposed for the first time as Director shall participate in the General Meeting that decides on his or her election unless there are well-founded reasons for absence.

Shareholder agreements

A shareholder agreement is an agreement among the shareholders of a company on the company's governance and management. A shareholder agreement can be made when a company is established or during the time of its operation. A shareholder agreement is binding between the shareholders. A shareholder agreement does not bind the company itself unless the company is included in the agreement. In general the Board of Directors approves a shareholder agreement on behalf of the company.

Etteplan has not made a shareholder agreement nor is the Company aware of possible shareholder agreements.

BOARD

The Board of Directors is responsible for the Company's management and for the due organization of the Company's operations in accordance with the relevant legislation and the Company's Articles of Association. The Board of Directors controls and monitors the Company's operations and management; appoints and dismisses the CEO; and approves the major decisions affecting the Company's strategy, capital expenditures, organization, remuneration and bonus systems covering the management, and finances.

REMUNERATION

Principles applied to remuneration schemes

The goal of remuneration schemes is to promote competitiveness and long-term financial success of the Company and to contribute to the favourable development of shareholder value. Remuneration schemes are based on predetermined and measurable performance and result criteria.

The task of Board's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in matters related to the remuneration of the Company's CEO, the deputy CEO and other executives and to prepare matters related to the reward schemes for employees.

Decision-making process

The General Meeting shall decide on the remuneration payable for Board and Committee work as well as the basis for its determination. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee has been assigned the duty of preparing the remuneration of the Board. The Board of Directors shall decide on the remuneration of the CEO as well as other compensation payable to him or her. The compensation principles for the Management Group are determined by the CEO in cooperation with the Board of Directors.

Remuneration of the Board of Directors

According to the resolution passed by the Annual General Meeting of 2010, the remuneration for each member of the Board of Directors is 600 euros per meeting and for the Chairman of the Board of Directors 1,200 euros per meeting. In addition, each member of the Board receives 1,300 euros per month and the Chairman of the Board of Directors 2,600 euros per month. In addition daily allowances and travel expenses are paid to the Board members according to the Company's travel policy.

No separate remuneration is paid for the Nomination and Remuneration Committee members. Daily allowances and travel expenses are paid for the meetings to the committee members according to the Company's travel policy.

Remuneration for Board and Committee work is not paid in the form of Company shares and the Board members are not in the target group of Company's share-based incentive plan.

Remuneration of the CEO and other executives

The CEO's compensation consists of a basic salary and a yearly bonus decided annually by the Board on the basis of the corporation's financial result and other key targets. The maximum amount of yearly bonus is decided annually. In addition the CEO has car and phone benefits. Matti Hyytiäinen belongs to the target group of a share-based incentive plan for the key employees of Etteplan Group. Statutory retirement age applies to the CEO. In the event of dismissal, the CEO is at the most entitled to receive compensation equivalent to 18 months' salary which includes the salary for a six-month term of notice.

The system of compensation for the members of the Management Group includes a base salary and a profit-related bonus. The principles for profit-related bonus are decided annually. In 2010 the profit-related bonus was based on the Company's profit and the result within the member's area of responsibility. The maximum of the yearly bonus is 25-100 percent of the recipient's annual salary depending on the member's duties. Members of the Management Group are included in the share-based incentive plan for the Company's key personnel. No separate agreement has been made regarding early retirement for members of the Management Group. In the event of dismissal, a Management Group member is at the most entitled to receive compensation equivalent to 10 months' salary which includes the salary for a four-month term of notice.

Information on the service contract of the CEO

In 2010, President and CEO Matti Hyytiäinen's basic salary was EUR 255,417. In 2010, his car and phone benefits totaled to EUR 15,840. In addition, EUR 28,600 performance based bonus was paid to President and CEO in 2010.

The bonus for share-based incentive plan accrued from 2008 and paid in April 2009 was 4 451 Etteplan Oyj shares together with an estimated cash bonus to cover taxes and similar charges arising from the receipt of shares. According to the resolution made by the Board of Directors of Etteplan Oyj no company-held shares were disposed for the 2009 and 2010 earnings periods.

In 2010 no additional accrual basis pension insurance policy was paid for the President and CEO.

Share-based incentive plan

In 2008, the Etteplan Oyj Board of Directors decided on a new share-based incentive plan for senior management and other key employees. The plan, launched at the beginning of 2008, comprises 37 people in 2008, 39 in 2009 and 33 in 2010. The share-based incentive plan offers the target group the opportunity to receive Etteplan Oyj shares as remuneration for achieving the set targets.

The plan includes three earnings periods: calendar years 2008, 2009, and 2010. The amount of remunerations paid is tied to objectives that are set annually. The Board is authorized to make decisions related to the share-based incentive plan by earnings period. At the beginning of each earnings period, the Board of Directors reviews the target group and specifies the maximum number of shares per person that can be earned. Remunerations paid out from the incentive plan are paid in three instalments, as company shares and partly in cash. The part paid in cash covers the taxes and tax-like fees paid for the remuneration. An earnings period is followed by a mandatory two-year ownership period. During three earnings periods, the remunerations correspond to the value of about 720,000 Etteplan Oyj shares at maximum.

If employment is terminated during the earnings or ownership period, the shares must be returned to the Company without compensation.

Etteplan Oyj has, on 30 April 2009, disposed 41,177 company-held shares as the remuneration for the 2008 earnings period for 36 employees who were part of share-based incentive plan in 2008. The Company did not dispose company-held shares for the 2009 and 2010 earnings periods to the employees who were part of share-based incentive plan.

Remuneration Statement

A remuneration statement is available on Company's webpage at www.etteplan.com. The statement is updated regularly.

INTERNAL CONTROL, RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL AUDIT

The objective of Etteplan Oyj's internal control and risk management is to ensure that the Company's operations are efficient and profitable, its information is reliable, and it complies with appropriate regulations and operating principles. The objectives also include identification, assessment, and monitoring of risks related to business operations. Internal audit helps to improve the efficient fulfilment of the Board's supervision obligation.

Operating principles of internal control

The Board ensures that the Company has defined the operating principles of internal control and monitors the function of such control.

Organization of risk management

Management and mitigation of the impact of risks is one of the Group's main principles of operation. The Board of Directors and the Management Group monitor the development of risks and concentrations of risk. The Group's financial administration operations monitor and assess operational and financial risks and take measures to avert them in cooperation with the Board of Directors, the Management Group, and the management personnel responsible for design work.

Risks related to Etteplan Group's business operations are divided into external and internal risks, and the risks are monitored according to this classification.

External risks

External risks include risks concerning economic development on the whole and unpredictable changes in customers' order books, which are classified as the greatest risk in the Company's business operations.

Internal risks

Internal risks include strategic and operating risks, as well as financing risks.

Etteplan's most significant strategic risks relate to development of business operations and acquisitions. The Company aims to manage these risks by following its acquisitions policy and applying procedures and models that have been prepared on the basis of this policy. In addition to acquisitions, organic growth is an important part of the growth objectives for Etteplan's business.

Etteplan's greatest operating risks are related to commissions and personnel. The Company's commissions involve risk of services or performances including a professional error, omissions, or other negligence that could cause significant financial or other damage. In order to contain operating risks, the Company applies the following procedures: application of quality management systems, codes of practice, and acceptance procedures; coupled with training of personnel; and compliance with instructions on management of quotes and contracts, particularly in delimitation of contractual liability. The Company has a liability insurance program that encompasses the entire Group. However, the insurance does not cover all liability risks. The Company's business is based on professional personnel. Availability of competent professionals is an important factor in ensuring profitable growth and continued high-quality business operations.

Reviews concerning financing risks are presented in the notes to the consolidated financial statements in the Annual Report 2010 on page 32.

Internal audit

Etteplan Group does not have separate internal audit function. The Board can engage external advisors to perform evaluations relating to control environment or other activities.

Description of the main features of the internal control and risk management systems pertaining to the financial reporting process

Etteplan prepares consolidated financial statements and interim reports in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards, as adopted by EU, the Securities Markets Acts as well as the appropriate Financial Supervision Authority Standards and NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Ltd's rules. The Report of the Board of Directors of Etteplan and parent company financial statements are prepared in accordance with Finnish Accounting Act and the opinions and guidelines of the Finnish Accounting Board.

INSIDER ADMINISTRATION

The Etteplan Oyj Board of Directors has approved insider regulations for the Company. The regulations are based on the Finnish Securities Markets Act, and they comply with the standards of Financial Supervision and the Guidelines issued by the NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Ltd, which took effect on 9 October 2009. In accordance with the Finnish Securities Markets Act, Etteplan Oyj's insiders are defined to consist of insiders with the duty to declare their interests, permanent company-specific insiders, and project-specific insiders.

Because of the nature of their position, also among Etteplan's statutory insiders are the members of the Board of Directors, the CEO, and the Chief Auditor from the chosen auditing firm (a company of independent public accountants). Moreover, the members of the Management Group are entered in the public insider register.

The Company maintains a permanent company-specific insider register, which includes front-line managers for business operations, financial administration personnel, and those working for the Company on the basis of an employment or other contract who receive insider information.

A project-specific insider register is created by decision of the Board of Directors, the CEO, or the Management Group.

The Company's insider guidelines direct insiders to restrict their trading in the Company's shares to times when the markets have as precise information as possible on the factors influencing the value of shares in the Company. Consequently, Etteplan's public and permanent company-specific insiders may trade in Etteplan securities only within a window of six weeks following announcements of financial results, provided that the person concerned is not registered in a project-specific insider register.

Maintenance of the public insider register of Etteplan Oyj is the responsibility of the Chief Financial Officer, who is responsible for compliance with insider regulations and fulfilment of duties to report. Etteplan Oyj's insider registers are maintained by the Company's head office, which updates the information that, as required by law, is entered in the public insider register for Euroclear Finland Ltd pertaining to insiders with the duty to declare.

Information on insider holdings

Information about the holdings of Etteplan Oyj insiders with the duty to declare is retained at the company's web sites at www.etteplan.com. The insider registers of issuers are on public display at Euroclear Finland Ltd (previously Finnish Central Securities Depository), Urho Kekkosen katu 5 C, FI-00100 Helsinki, Finland.

AUDIT

The primary duty of statutory auditing is to verify that the financial statements give correct and sufficient information about the Group's profit and financial situation for the financial year. Etteplan Oyj's financial year is the calendar year. The auditor is responsible for auditing the Company's accounts and the correctness of its financial statements during the financial year, and for issuing an auditor's report to the Annual General Meeting.

A summary of the Group's audit report is compiled for the Board of Directors. Also, the auditors of all Group companies report separately to the management of each company within the Group. The auditor attends at least one meeting of the Board of Directors in the relevant financial year.

The Annual General Meeting elects one regular auditor to audit corporate governance and accounts. The auditor must be a firm of independent public accountants so authorized by the Central Chamber of Commerce. In 2010, the Annual General Meeting elected PricewaterhouseCoopers Oy, a firm of authorized public accountants, with Mika Kaarisalo, APA, acting as Chief Auditor. The auditor's term ends at the conclusion of the first Annual General Meeting after the election.

Auditing was opened for competitive bidding at the beginning of 2009.

Audit fees and services not related to auditing

According to the resolution made by the Annual General Meeting 2010 the fees for the auditor are paid according to invoice by the principles approved by the Board of Directors.

The audit fees paid in 2010 totalled 67,032 euros (in 2009: 76,861 euros). In addition, 74,527 euros was paid to the firm for services not related to auditing (in 2009: 52,469 euros).

COMMUNICATIONS

It is Etteplan Oyj's principle to be open, truthful, and quick in all communications. The primary objective of the Company's investor information is to provide the market with information about the Group's operations and financial standing. The goal is to give all stakeholder groups correct and uniform information in a regular and balanced manner.

Silent period

Etteplan Oyj follows a so-called silent period before publication of interim reports and financial statement releases. The duration of the silent period is two weeks.

Distribution of investor information

Etteplan publishes all of its investor information on the Company's Web site at www.etteplan.com. Financial releases will be made available for viewing and printing immediately after publication. They will be published in Finnish and English.
